DELIVERY TIME

The flowerbulb crop for fall planting arrives in the U.S. in mid-September. Planting time is late September through December. We ship to colder areas first, working our way south (and west) as the weather cools. If you would like us to deliver at a particular time, let us know.

BLEND PACKING

Blends are mixed in the Netherlands before packing. If you are interested in ordering a variety that is part of a blend, ask us about it. We may stock it separately.

PRECHILLING: FOR WARM CLIMATES

In the Deep South, the desert Southwest, and most of California, bulbs need to be prechilled in a refrigerator for 6–12 weeks before planting. For more information on prechilling, please visit colorblends.com or give us a call.

THE COLORBLENDS GUARANTEE

Please see page 148. Colorblends stands behind its bulbs, when planted in the ground, the first spring after planting.

Small package orders are shipped via FedEx. Pallet orders go by LTL carrier.
